A warm, versatile and spacious welcome awaits at number 8, a three bedroom mews home tucked away on a private road in a cul-de-sac location within the well regarded historic splendour of Davenport Park.

Drive over to Beech Mews and be wooed by the charm and character of Davenport Park and the convenience and privacy of the cul-de-sac.

Versatile space? How so? It is best revealed by way of a visit to uncover how you would personally enjoy this home! As a taster, however, there are three bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom on the second floor and on the first floor, a good size living room which can open by way of folding doors to the dining kitchen area.

To the ground floor, there is a utility room, a contemporary shower room/ w.c. and a cosy living area open to kitchen style area (with all but a cooker). The owners tell us that this space is fantastic for occasional guests. It would, however, suit a range of other purposes such as a work from home area.

Outside, there is a good size paved driveway to the front. At the front of the property a roller shutter garage door opens to a storage area.

To the rear is a patio area which leads on to a lawn garden. To the rear is a raised flower bed with decorative timber sleepers.

Located in this particularly sought after area, the property is located within close proximity to Davenport train station providing fantastic commuter access to Manchester City Centre, Stockport and destinations beyond. Davenport high street offers an array of shops and restaurants and Cale Green Park is a stroll away. The property is also convenient for schools including Stockport High School and Stockport Grammar.
